SECTION IV NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR

As a result of a judgment entered against you the attached execution has been issued against your personal property. SOME OF YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY MAY BE EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION -- Certain classes of personal property may be protected from execution by state statutes or other laws or regulations of this state or of the United States. A checklist and description of the most common classes of personal property of a natural person exempt from execution are set forth on page 2 of this form.

HOW TO CLAIM AN EXEMPTION ESTABLISHED BY LAW -- If you wish to claim that the property levied on by the levying officer is exempt by law from execution you must fill out and sign the Claim of Exemption on page 2 of this form and return this exemption claim form to the clerk of the Superior court at the above address. The form must be received by the clerk of the Superior Court within 20 days after levy on the property.

Upon receipt of this form, the court clerk will notify you and the judgment creditor of the date on which a hearing will be held by the court to determine the issues raised by your claim.

RIGHT TO REQUEST INSTALMENT PAYMENT ORDER -- Pursuant to section 52-356d of the general statutes, if you are a consumer judgment debtor, you may seek to have the court issue an instalment payment order with a provision that compliance with the order prevents a levy on your property. An instalment payment order is an order of the court that you pay a weekly amount to the judgment creditor until the judgment is satisfied.

"Consumer Judgment" means a money judgment of less than five thousand dollars against a natural person resulting from a debt or obligation incurred primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

SETTING ASIDE THE JUDGMENT -- If the judgment was rendered against you because of your failure to appear in court, you may, pursuant to section 52-212 of the general statutes, within four months of the date judgment was rendered and upon belief that you have reasonable cause, move the court to set aside the judgment rendered against you.
